

January 08, 2016 public comment

I approve and applaud the Citizens' Taskforce idea for eliminating sales tax on groceries in exchange for removing the Senior Sales Tax exemption. The high cost of living here is perhaps most evident at the grocery store. Healthy choices can be difficult. I suspect many seniors can manage without a sales tax exemption, but everyone young and old would benefit from a break on the price of food.