

Public Comment 01/12/2016

Looks like the “citizens task force” wants to make senior citizens, year round residents of Sitka, pay more taxes.

Why are the tourist businesses, many of which are operated by “part-time seasonal residents” being exempt from paying any taxes on food and services?

It would be more beneficial to make public what specific money exchanges are NOT being taxed besides just the seniors.